

Our Dead.

LUCAS.—Aaron Lucas fell asleep in Jesus at his residence 22 McKee St., Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 27, 1895, aged 50 years, 2 months and 22 days.

Brother Lucas was born in Lebanon Co., Pa. When a youth he with his parents moved West, and in later years located in Dayton where we learned to know him. He was a member of the Dayton Brethren church many years. As years advanced, his zeal in the Lord's cause increased, and the last year of his sojourn on earth was apparently the most successful period of his life in Christian work. He was superintendent of the Dayton Brethren Sabbath-school from the beginning of the year until his death. About four weeks preceeding his disease, he was taken sick with Typhus fever. The same disease in less than three years took from his embrace three members of his family, his beloved wife and two sons. A son, Clarence Lucas, and two daughters, Miss Cora Lucas and Mrs. Clara Balser, survive him.

In the death of Brother Lucas, the family has lost a loving father. The Sabbath school a faithful superintendent, the church a conscientious christian worker, and the community an upright citizen. His body now rests by the side of his wife and two sons in a beautiful cemetery, a short distance south of this city, awaiting the first and glorious resurrection. The Lord abundantly bless the surviving children.

S. KIEHL.

McFADDEN.—Susanah McFadden, (nee Erb) was born June 6, 1841, and died Dec. 6, 1895, aged 54 years and 6 months.

She was married to Robert McFadden May 26, 1868. To them were born eight children, two of them died in their infancy, four daughters and two sons, and the father remain to mourn their loss. Sister McFadden was converted to God in her girlhood days, being made willing to forsake her sins under the preaching of elder P. J. Brown. She remained faithful through all the long years to the end of her mortal life. She was a leading member in the Brethren church at Fair Haven. She was one of the charter members of the Sisters Society of Christian Endeavor, and its president for a number of years, always willing to discharge her duty to the best of her ability. She was a live member in the church, an exemplary Christian in her neighborhood, and a kind mother to her family. She will be missed by us all. She was taken from our midst suddenly. Her death was caused by Paralysis. She took sick away from home. She insisted to be taken home to her children. When she arrived at home she was unconscious and never recovered, when in a few days the messenger came and called her up higher. The funeral sermon was preached by the writer, in the Fair Haven church, which was filled to its utmost seating capacity with sympathetic friends and neighbors. May God in mercy remember and bless the bereaved family.

WM. KIEFER.

Pleasant Home, Ohio.

AT REST.

Lorinda N. Huston passed into heavenly rest from the home of her parents, in the town of Chapin, Nov. 25, 1894, aged 24 years, 3 months and 25 days.

She was born in Wayne Co., Ohio, July 30, 1871. When she was eight years of age her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam C. Rumbaugh, moved to Chapin, Saginaw Co., Mich.

March 30, 1895, she was married to Mr. Henry Huston, of Elba township, Gratiot Co., with whom she started out in bright anticipation of a prosperous voyage through life.

Her health began to fail in June, but she was not confined to her bed till about the first of August, since which time she has been a sufferer. About two months ago she regained her strength sufficiently so that at her own request she was removed to the home of her parents.

Sister Huston was converted when about sixteen years of age, in a meeting held by Rev. Nathan Roof, at Pleasant Valley church. She was never a woman of many words, but presented a life that commended the religion of Jesus to all who knew her. She was a dutiful daughter, a faithful wife, and a consistent Christian.

When disease fastened upon her she clung tenaciously to life, but her faith in Christ got the victory and she was enabled to express a spirit of sweet resignation to the divine will. Her sufferings were borne with commendable Christian patience.

The funeral services were held at the Pleasant Valley church, Tuesday, the 26th inst., at which a large concourse of friends expressed their sympathy with the bereaved parents and husband. Sermon from 1 Cor. 15:49, by Pastor Whitaker, assisted by Rev. Stone, of Carson City.

O, Babe of the manger, thrice blessed Thy name.
O Carpenter—meek Nazarene.

O Conqueror of death. Thy glorious fame
From the cross and the sepulchre down to us came,

A boon to the children of men.

Matrimonial.

HOSTETLER—CLAYTON.—By the undersigned at the residence of the brides parents, LaPaz, Marshall county, Ind., Nov. 12, 1875, Brother Melvin Hostetler and sister Eva Clayton.

I. N. MILLER.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

In memory of our departed sister in Christ, Ella Puterbaugh, who left us the morning of November 30, to claim the reward which is awaiting her.

WHEREAS, the hand of death has entered our midst and taken from our Sunday-school class, one of our loved and faithful members,

Therefore, we the members of the class and church, will sadly miss her, and knowing that she will never occupy her place here with us,

Therefore be it resolved, that we emulate the virtues of her life, and that we cherish her memory by extending our heart felt sympathy to the bereaved husband and friends, and referring them to our Redeemer who doeth all things well.

ELLA SELLER,
HARRY HEPFER,
MOLLIE SWORD. } Committee.

Lanark, Ill.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

The S. S. C. E. of Fair Haven, at a recent meeting, passed the following resolutions:

WHEREAS it has pleased our heavenly Father to remove from our midst our much beloved sister, Susan McFadden, therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of this sister the S. S. C. E. has lost an active and worthy member, the church an humble and consistent Christian, the husband a loving wife, the children a dear and kind mother.

Resolved, That we sympathize with the bereaved husband and children in this sad hour of affliction.

Resolved, That these resolutions be sent to the EVANGELIST for publication, also a copy be given the family.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled:
A place is vacant in our midst,
Which never can be filled.

God in all his wisdom has recalled,
The boon his love had given;
And though her body slumbers here,
Her soul is safe in heaven.

Peaceful be thy silent slumbers,
Peace in thy grave so low;
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our songs will know.

KATE THORLEY,
SARAH MILLER,
NANCY SWINEHART,
SARAH KEIFER. } Com.